

Lab 3: SQL Queries

Objective: Group functions and having and order by

Perform the following queries

- a) List the number of employees and average salary for employees in department 20.
- b) List the employee details in the ascending order of their basic salary.
- c) List the employee name and hire date in the descending order of the hire date.
- d) List the department numbers and number of employees in each department.
- e) List the department number and total salary payable in each department.
- f) List the jobs and number of employees in each job. The result should be in the descending order of the number of employees.
- g) List the total salary, maximum and minimum salary and average salary of the employees, for department 20.
- h) List the average salary of the employees job wise, for department 20 and display only those rows having an average salary > 1000